OLCOVICH BROS.

Sandrock and Millard, practical plumbers and gasfitters, have opened a shop in Dick Mills' old stand South Carson St., and propose to do all work in their line at prices so low that you don't have to mortgage your property to pay them. Stoves and ranges and all kinds of tinware on hand, at very reasonable rates. Razors and scissors sharpened.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his holiday stock.

G. Gale, an expert banjoist is in the city, and will take a limited number of pupils to teach to play that instrument. Apply at Mrs. Barights, east of Opera House.

THE WILL CONTEST CASE.

Testimony Showing Undue Influence on the Part of Mrs. Stevenson.

The Stevenson will contest case came up again in the District Court before Judge Rising. The widow of the deceased was present, unaccompanied, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Stevenson of Reno, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stevenson, of Carson, were also present.

W. H. Stevenson's testimony was in connection with the mortgage, and had no particular bearing on the case, except that his brother had taken action in the matter at his wife's suggestion. W. C. Dovey was put on the stand, and stated that he had known the deceased and his wife for a number of years, but had taken no particular notice of marked influence on the part of Ellen until the making of the will. Attorney for defendant objected to this, on the ground that no testimony was admissible unless covering events before the making of the will, and was sustained by the Court.

Dr. Mullen, of Reno, had noticed a disposition on the part of Ellen to prevent her husband being alone with his sons, and that he had expressed a willingness to materially aid his son Lou in paying for the treatment his (Louie) son was undergoing in the Doctor's care.

Mrs. Edward Stevenson, on the stand, stated that she had noticed from the first, an unusual degree of influence displayed by Mrs. Stevenson over the Governor, and cited cases to prove that she ruled him absolutely, particularly in not allowing the Governor to assist his sons in any way, in helping them purchase property with an aim to their future welfare, their daily needs, etc.; had noticed that he was a genial companion when away from his wife, but wore a restrained aspect in her company.

Ed. Stevenson's testimony was substantially the same as his wife's and showed that his father had been very kindly disposed toward him, but that Ellen had objected to any action on the part of his father which would promote the welfare of his sons, and his father had bowed to her will.

The Court took a recess until 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon was mostly taken up with evidence on the part of the plaintiffs as to the undue influence Ellen had over her husband, which was testified to by both the sons and Mrs. Edward Stevenson, and was thoroughly proven. The defense attempted to prove to the contrary, but was unsuccessful. Mr. Campbell of Reno testified that the will had been tampered with; Mr. Hallock and T. J. Edwards could not see any evidence of detachment.

Several cases were cited to show that the Governor had always been very kindly disposed toward his sons, but Ellen's influence over him had caused him to revoke every promise of assistance to them. Chas. Friend cut out a small portion of the will, and will report the result of a microscopic examination this afternoon. A letter was shown which Mrs. Stevenson admitted to be in her hand writing. It was not read aloud but the Court pronounced it an infamous epistle and said he would give it due consideration. It had been sent to Ed by his mother who had received it anonymously. Attorney Coffin stated that it had been received by the Governor who had instructed his wife Ellen to copy it in order to preserve it, and that this accounted for her hand writing.

During the proceedings a telegram was received from San Francisco, stating that Attorney Cretien, of that place would appear Friday and testify to having seen the codicil.

The case will come up again this morning.

The following is the Roll of Honor of Miss Adeline Morton's class, for the month of February: Leon Stevenson, Frank Gill, Lee Stearns, Harry Gill, Harry Stevenson, Ruebel Martin, Minnie Kattelman, Lizzie Sanger and Elsie Cottrell.

At 2 p. m., House adjourned.

Jellerson-Legault.

Yesterday afternoon Maggie J. Jellerson, of this city was married at the residence of her parents to Oscar L. Legault, of Truckee, by Rev. George Bird.

Thus another of Carson's most amiable young ladies goes to make a man happy elsewhere. It seems a pity that such a splendid specimen of womanhood could not be kept in Carson.

Though the groom is not personally known to the writer, the APPEAL feels justified in stating that he evidently is a man of taste and knows a good article when he sees it.

The happy couple departed for Truckee last evening, and this office acknowledges the usual remembrances.

Grand Jury.

A Grand Jury was impanelled yesterday. The case of W. D. Jones, selling liquor to Indians, and that of Fred Brault, charged with assault with intent to kill, will be looked after.

Don't forget that the ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a first class lunch at the Odd Fellows' Hall to-morrow. There will be a delightful entertainment in the evening, after which there will be a nice supper. Don't fail to go as you will miss a big thing if you do.

The Tribune of last night was in error in placing a value on the late George Tuffy's estate; its value is nearer $40,000 than $15,000. The APPEAL has this from reliable authority.

TRUTH IS A MIGHTY POWER.

An argument backed by this power is sure to be in favor.

Our motto—to state and redeem our true statement always conquers.

We are here to do you good if you will have it so.

If the wellfare of your eye-sight is of any importance to you do not let any trifling matter, or prejudice prevent you, consult us, and let us provide you with the pleasures of your lifetime—Good eye sight. Our work is the truth. Our glasses are the truth. Our charges reasonable and true as possibly they can be. It is truth and nothing but the truth that you will regret it if you miss the opportunity to consult us about your eye-sight and have glasses prepared by us. Following are a few home testimonials for your inspection thousands of the same can be inspected at the office, from all parts:

Telegraph street, back of Zehners.

Carson, Nev. Feb. 2, 1891.

I am pleased to say Prof. Frank has added a great deal to the comfort of my eye-sight. Never before have I been able to procure proper glasses till I consulted the Professor; I feel like recommending him to my friends and to the public generally.

CHAS. KEYSER, Senator

Carson, Nev. Feb. 3, 1891.

Prof. Frank has made two pair of glasses for my eye-sight which I consider a great help and comfort and excellent in every way.

MRS. J. M. WAGNER, M. D.

For some years past I have been a great deal annoyed regarding my eye-sight. Hearing of Prof. Frank I consulted the gentleman who at once remedied the trouble and I can say made a wonderful improvement which is comfort and pleasure to me.

D. V. JOHNSTON,

Carson, Nev. Feb. 2, 1891.

Professor Frank fitted me out with a pair of spectacles, or eyeglasses which are the finest and clearest that I have ever had.

WILLIS G. CLARK.

Prof. Frank has made a pair of eye-glasses for me which I consider very excellent in every respect.

WILLIAM THOMPSON.
